TENNESSEE REGISTERS ASSOCIATION CONSTITUTION AND BY-LAWS (REVISED 2010)

This organization shall be known as the TENNESSEE REGISTERS ASSOCIATION. The purpose of this Association is to unite the Registers of Deeds for exchanging problems which exist among Tennessee counties, and where common problems exist cooperation is necessary.

ARTICLE I
Objectives

Section 1. To prepetuate and develop an agency for the cooperation of the counties of Tennessee to investigate, study, discuss, and recommend improvements in, and the application of more efficient methods in, the offices of the Registers of Deeds.

Section 2. To provide means whereby Registers of Deeds may interchange ideas and experiences and obtain advice.

Section 3. To collect, compile, and distribute information.

Section 4. To develop friendship as a means of broadening the opportunity for better serving the public, and to encourage high standards of operation.

Section 5. To inculcate the ideal of services as a basis for the business and civic life of the Registers of Deeds.

Section 6. To advocate and support legislation beneficial to the administration of the office of Register of Deeds and to oppose legislation injurious thereto.

ARTICLE II
Membership

Section 1. Membership in the Tennessee Registers Association is not mandatory; but every Register of Deeds in the State has the
